PROBLEM AND PROJECT-BASED LEARNING

(THE AALBORG PBL MODEL)

- ▶ The students are driven by a problem – they learn through problem solving
- ▶ The students prepare a project
– the project work takes place in groups
- ▶ The students have an academic supervisor who assists, challenges and discusses with the students and provides feedback on their project work
- ▶ Students document their work in a project report, which is the subject of an oral examination
